Infringing Press Freedom
Government can infringe on freedom of the press through either direct intervention in the contents of publication or through confiscatory charges on distribution.

Proposed second-class mail rates set by the Postal Service in effect would curtail newspaper distribution to thousands of readers.

If the rates are approved by the Postal Rate Commission, newspaper management could see subscription costs increase 142 per cent in the next five years.

Squeezed by higher costs on all sides, newspaper patrons may find the forced rate increases prohibitive. Newspapers and other publications, therefore, would become beyond the financial reach of many Americans.

Particularly hard hit will be small weekly papers, which depend almost exclusively on the mail for distribution.

The new rates are based on 199 per cent of attributable, or actual, costs of handling the mail. Postal officials say that the extra charge is necessary to cover overhead beyond actual handling costs.

We appreciate the fact that the Postal Service is attempting to operate on a business-like basis. But when rates clearly prohibit many Americans from access to varied publications, freedom of the press, guarded by the U.S. Constitution, is endangered. Reassessment of the proposed rate structure is in order. —Dallas (Tex.) Morning News

8,000 More Leave War in Vietnam

SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. Command said today that American military strength in Vietnam dropped by 8,000 troops last week, the second largest weekly cut this year.

The weekly summary covering April 23-29 said there were 273,400 U.S. troops in Vietnam on April 29 compared with 281,400 the previous Thursday.

The summary gave this breakdown: Army 208,700; Air Force 39,700; Marines 12,800; Navy 12,100; and Coast Guard 100.

In addition, there are about 17,800 Navy personnel with the 7th Fleet operating off the coast of Vietnam.

Another 89,400 U.S. troops must be cut by next Dec. 1 to meet the authorized ceiling of 184,000 set recently by President Nixon.

The Baccalaureate services will begin at 10 a.m. in Mitchell Hall Auditorium.

Peace Mob Fails to Halt D.C. Traffic

WASHINGTON (AP) — Anti-war demonstrators fought police in a six-hour series of skirmishes on the capital's streets today. Rush-hour traffic was snarled, but the arrest of more than 6,000 protesters frustrated their efforts to paralyze the nation's government.

Beginning before dawn and continuing until noon, flying squads of policemen fired volleys of tear gas and wielded billy clubs to disperse crowds of demonstrators. Scores were injured.

At noon, as National Guardsmen, Marines and Army paratroopers joined police in patrolling littered streets, the mayor's office estimated 6,000 persons had been arrested. Suburban Virginia police said they arrested another 300.

The protesters' hit-and-run tactics temporarily blocked numerous intersections in the city. But a strong show of federal force kept traffic flowing across four major Potomac River bridges—a key target of the Mayday demonstrators.

"The city is open. The traffic is flowing. The government is functioning," said Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell at mid-morning. Mayor Walter Washington agreed, saying the demonstrators "did not succeed."

Virtually all government agencies reported employee absenteeism was about normal—and in some cases below normal.

At headquarters of the Mayday Collective, spokeswoman Carol Evans said: "We had an awful lot of opposition today. The police pretty much anticipated everything, but it was still fairly successful." Some protesters complained of police brutality.

Heavy Blood Demand in Hempstead

Hempstead County residents have used a larger amount of blood than usual in the last three months.

One young woman alone required 25 pints; others needed three or four pints when medical emergencies arose. Fortunately the blood was there because Hempstead County people had given it in earlier trips of the Bloodmobile. But now it must be replaced so it will be there when needed the next time.

Haskell Jones, Bloodmobile Chairman, reminds young men eighteen to twenty-one that they may now give blood without parental consent and he invites them to take part in this life saving function. The Red Cross Bloodmobile will return to Hope Monday and Tuesday, May 10th and 11th, 12 noon to 6:00 p.m. at the Red River Vocational Technical School. Two hundred forty pints are needed. Will you give one?

War Hero Dies as a Robber; Was 'Too Much Too Soon' Case?

By DONALD GRAUL JR.
Associated Press Writer
DETROIT (AP) — Why did Michigan's first black Medal of Honor winner die as an armed robber?

Dwight H. Johnson's father-in-law says he thinks "it was a case of too much too soon; the more they toasted him the more he became accustomed to it."

"Little things were piling up on them. They had things in their first year of marriage it took us 20 years to have," Leroy May said Saturday of his daughter, Katrina Lyn, and her husband.

Sgt. Johnson, 23, died last Friday after he was shot four times by the owner of a store police say he was attempting to rob.

Baffled by Police, Demonstrators Play It Like Guerrillas

By LEE BYRD
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Anti-war protesters, faced with a massive show of federal and police force on the four major bridges linking Virginia with the nation's capital, adopted guerrilla tactics today in their effort to stop the nation's government.

Demonstrators ebbed and flowed across major streets standing in front of cars and harassing drivers, until police arrived in force.

Traffic on M Street, a major artery through the Washington suburb of Georgetown, was virtually paralyzed by youths who threw themselves on the street pavement. Cars were pented with rocks and bottles.

Several groups stopped traffic on Connecticut Avenue, which runs through the heart of Washington's downtown district. They beat on car hoods and forced traffic to stop.

Houston Enters SW Conference

By DENNE H. FREEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer
COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (AP) — The Southwest Conference voted the University of Houston into the league today the first change in the membership since Texas Tech was admitted 15 years ago.

The vote was unanimous. The Cougars needed only six votes from the eight conference members.

Houston, a long-time independent, will not compete for the conference football championship until 1976, although it already has games scheduled with members such as a Sept. 11 contest with Rice.

Alan Chapman, Rice faculty representative to the conference, made the motion for Houston to be admitted and this was seconded by J. Neils Thompson, faculty representative of Texas, who was the prime supporter of Houston's bid to become a league member.

Southwest Conference faculty representatives and athletic directors had resumed their discussion of the Houston question at 8:30 a.m. today after a nine-hour session Sunday.

The Houston situation apparently hit a last-minute snag Sunday. Newsmen had been told to stand by for a news conference at 1 p.m. but no announcement was made.

Houston has about 25,000 students and is a noted golf and basketball power.

The Cougars also have made such great strides in football recently that major powers such as Mississippi and Mississippi State have dropped them from their schedules because Houston no longer is an easy early season contestant.

"Ho, Ho, Ho Chi Minh, NLF is gonna win," the demonstrators shouted. A few Viet Cong flags were carried. Some protesters wore motorcycle helmets as protection against police nightsticks.

A policeman who pulled one man off the hood of a car was struck several times by other demonstrators.

Police were told to disregard arrest forms and to forego pictures of those arrested and load the demonstrators into buses for the trip to jail.

Farm Program Is Set Up by Nixon

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL
Associated Press Writer
SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (AP) — President Nixon returns to Washington today with a $400 million program to help farmers improve incomes and exports—and perhaps improve his own political image in the farm belt. Loans would make up $349.4 million of the total.

For the man who was booed, picketed and snowballed by Iowa farmers during the winter, one great goal now is to push farm exports to $10 billion a year. A record $7.4 billion is forecast for this year.

Nixon spelled it out in a Sunday radio address to the nation.

To achieve the goal, he is adding $1 million to the $27.7 million already in the fiscal 1972 budget for the Foreign Agricultural Service—the federal agency which helps expand agricultural sales overseas.

He also promised continued efforts to lower trade barriers. The President disclosed new measures to help farmers combat inflation and ease the cost-price squeeze on an industry whose income this year will be the highest ever. The trouble, he said, is that increases in total income do not always mean increases in net income—because of the high costs of inflation—beset farmers.

So, Nixon said, the administration is working to expand the supply of farm credit. The first step is a bid to Congress to authorize the Farmers Home Administration to insure farm operating loans and then increase the amount available by $140 million—from $210 million this fiscal year to $350 million for the next.

The President said he hoped this credit expansion would be especially helpful to Southwestern farms hard hit by drought.

Rene James, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. James of 804 East Greenwood, Hope, was struck by a car driven by Joe H. Wilson, Hope, Saturday at 6:30 p.m. at 404 East Greenwood.

The child was taken to a local hospital, examined and released. No charges were filed by City Officer Jesse Brown who said that the youngster stepped out in front of the car.

Hope Police Dept. issued the following weekend report: 8 traffic violations, 4 license, 1 liquor, 7 drunkenness, 5 driving while intoxicated, 1 disturbing the peace, 1 shoplifting, 2 illegal co-habitation, 2 runaways and 1 failure to answer summons.

This brings to a total of 106 accidents, 29 injuries and 1 death for this year.

Egypt Kicks Out 2nd Man, Left Winger

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Observers in Cairo today attributed the dismissal of Vice President Aly Sabry, the Egyptian government's leading leftist, to his opposition to the federation with Libya and Syria.

Sabry was fired two days before the arrival in Cairo of Secretary of State William P. Rogers for talks with President Anwar Sadat on the Arab-Israeli stalemate. But although Sabry was notably anti-American, Rogers' visit was not believed to be a factor in the Egyptian dismissal.

Rumors of a rift between Sadat and Sabry had circulated in Cairo for several days. Brief announcements early today by Egypt's Middle East News Agency and the semi-official newspaper Al-Ahram said only that Sabry had been "re-lieved."

The vice president was reported to have objected to Sadat's signing of the Egypt-Syria-Libya federation agreement last week without waiting for a collective decision by other members of the government.

When Sadat took over last fall after the death of President Gamal Abdel Nasser, he indicated he would run Egypt through a form of collective leadership. However, Egypt's constitution gives the president full authority to dismiss vice presidents.

Sabry also was said to have led the opposition in Egypt to the federation, which was ratified only after amendments increased the autonomy retained by the individual members.

Sabry was a close friend of the Soviet Union and had made several visits to the Kremlin, most recently last December in an effort to get more arms for Egypt. But observers did not believe his Soviet friendship necessarily had anything to do with his dismissal.

Sabry, 50, was one of two vice presidents named after Nasser's death, and his ouster leaves Hussein el-Shafri the No. two man in the government.

Sabry also was a vice president under Nasser, but Nasser dismissed him in a cabinet shakeup in March 1968. He was one of Nasser's group of "free officers" who overthrew the Egyptian monarchy in 1952.

Killed were: —Victor G. Blevins, 42, of Texarkana, in a two-car head-on collision Sunday on U.S. 67, eight miles north of Texarkana.

—Dennis Joseph Poret, 28, of Little Rock, when his motorcycle was struck by a car at the junction of U.S. highways 67 and 270, east of Malvern Saturday night.

—L. V. Ritter Jr., 48, of Marked Tree, when his car slammed into the rear of a semi-trailer truck parked on the shoulder of I-40 near Wheatley Friday.

Sounds Like a Hungry Bear's on the Prowl In Fouke Vicinity

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP) — Bobby Ford, 25, of Fouke (Miller County) was treated at a hospital early Sunday for scratches and shock after he reported being attacked by a "large, hairy creature" at his home.

Ford told Miller County officials and Fouke Constable Ernest Walraven that about midnight Saturday a creature poked its paw through a hole in a window at the Ford home.

Ford said he and three other adults chased what they described as a large, hairy animal, which walked like a man into a wooded area behind the house.

War End's Savings Not Enough

WASHINGTON (AP) — The expanding costs of present and proposed federal programs will offset all revenue gains from Vietnam troop withdrawals and from economic growth through 1975, a budget study by the Brookings Institution shows.

The report says when the peace dividend does arrive in 1976, it will be about $17 billion dollars, considerably below President Nixon's budget forecast of $30 billion.

Since $15 billion of the margin will be surplus in the Social Security trust fund, the report said, Congress probably will have spent it in advance for increased Social Security benefits.

Brookings Institution is an independent research organization respected in the government and elsewhere for its work.

The report, a 336-page volume, was written by former Budget Director Charles L. Schultze and three Brookings Institution staff economists.

It analyzed Nixon's $229.9 billion budget for 1972, program by program. Among its conclusions: —By the mid-1970s, the highway trust fund will build to a multibillion dollar surplus because road tax revenues will outrun the scheduled highway spending by $1 billion to $1.5 billion a year.

—The goal of 25 million new housing units in the 1969-1978 decade will not be met. The authors foresee 23,380,000 new dwellings.

—It would require an estimated 9 per cent rise in the money supply for the national output to reach $1.065 trillion this year—an economic assumption Nixon made in his budget—but so rapid an increase seems doubtful.

—If the production goal is attained, accompanied by a substantial decline in unemployment, the advance might renew inflationary pressures and cause larger price increases than the projected 4 per cent.

The Brookings team noted the highway surplus would exceed the total amount planned for mass transit and high speed rail transportation.

10 Youngsters 'Borrow' Car, 9 Are Killed

By RAY BELL
Associated Press Writer
COVINGTON, Ga. (AP) —

Ten youngsters piled into Danny Henderson's "new" car for a Sunday ride. Nine of them died a short time later when a freight train slammed into the compact auto and dragged it almost a mile.

Jimmy Norwood and his sister Almethin were among the victims. So were Peggy Ann Fuller and her sister Susie Ann.

The 10 ranged in age from 12 to 16. The only one spared was Sharon Belcher, 16. She was taken to an Atlanta hospital in critical condition.

The accident at an elevated country road crossing was less than three miles west of their homes in this north central Georgia community of 10,300.

Newton County Sheriff Henry Odum said the car was hit broadside by the lead diesel of a 65-car Georgia Railroad freight train traveling at about 45 miles an hour.

He said the 10-year-old, second-hand vehicle was bent nearly in half by the impact, with the right rear end of the car lacking only five feet of touching the right front wheel.

"They never knew what hit them," Newton County Coroner San Cowan said. "I was in the first ambulance to arrive and, at first glance, I didn't see how there could be any survivors."

Killed were Henderson, 16; Jimmy Norwood, 15; his sister, Almethin, 12; Vickie Gilstrap, 14; Dira Williams, 12; Peggy Ann Fuller, 15; her sister, Susie Ann, 12; Harold Tuggle, 16; and Sheila Height, 14.

The state patrol listed Henderson as the driver.

All of the youngsters lived within a few blocks of one another in Covington, 35 miles east of Atlanta.

Capital Punishment Is Upheld

By BARRY SCHWEID
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court rejected 6 to 3 today challenges to death penalty procedures in the United States.

The ruling, delivered by Justice John M. Harlan, said leaving to the jury's discretion the power to decide between life or death in capital cases does not violate the Constitution.

Secondly, Harlan said, the Constitution does not require separating the penalty phase of capital trials from the body of the trial.

The decision upholds first-degree murder convictions and death sentences against Dennis C. McGautha of Los Angeles and James E. Crampton of Toledo, Ohio. McGautha was found guilty of killing a grocer, Crampton of killing his wife.

The issues raised in their appeals had blocked execution in the United States for almost four years. There are now 644 men and seven women on death row in 33 states. The ruling could result in early executions in many instances.

Justice Harlan was joined by Chief Justice Warren E. Burger and Justices Hugo L. Black, Potter Stewart, Byron R. White and Harry A. Blackmun. Justices William J. Brennan Jr., William O. Douglas and Thurgood Marshall dissented.

The decision does not dispose of the ultimate challenge to capital punishment. This is the argument that the death penalty is a form of cruel and unusual punishment prohibited by the Constitution. The court has never ruled on that question, although the issue is regularly put to the justices in appeals from condemned men.

"Our function," Harlan said, "is not to impose on the states, ex cathedra, what might seem to us a better system for dealing with capital cases. Rather it is to decide whether the federal Constitution proscribes the present procedures of these states in such cases."

Historically, Harlan said, the question of capital punishment has been shifted to the judgment and the consciences of the juries. He said it would require a strong showing to upset this settled practice of the nation on constitutional grounds.

"We find it quite impossible to say that committing to the untrammelled discretion of the jury the power to pronounce life or death in capital cases is offensive to anything in the Constitution," Harlan wrote.

"The states are entitled to assume that jurors confronted with the truly awesome responsibility of decreeing death for a fellow human will act with due regard for the consequences of their decision ..."

With this judgment the court rejected the argument made by attorneys for McGautha and Crampton that juries should be stripped of their "absolute discretion" to decide which defendants convicted of capital crimes should die and which should get life sentences.

The second point, raised by Crampton, was that the process of deciding on a sentence should be split off from the guilt-or-innocence phase of the trial. The reasoning was that a defendant who testified could incriminate himself while by withholding information that would mitigate the penalty. If the trial is split, the argument went, the dilemma would be resolved.

New Attack on South by N. Vietnam

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — North Vietnamese troops made a new shelling attack today on a South Vietnamese military district headquarters south of Da Nang despite heavy losses there Sunday.

For an hour before dawn the enemy gunners fired 60 mortar and recoilless rifle shells into the Dai Loc headquarters 15 miles southwest of Da Nang. A communique said one house was damaged and there were no casualties.

Just 24 hours before, North Vietnamese forces made a ground assault under the cover of darkness against the headquarters. The infantry attack was preceded by a shelling.

Saigon headquarters said the North Vietnamese were repulsed with the help of U.S. air strikes, and 92 of the enemy were killed and two were captured. The South Vietnamese militiamen defending the headquarters reported capturing 33 rifles and 12 heavy weapons.

Field reports said 15 militiamen were killed and 53 were wounded.

Two other actions were reported in the same region.

Five rockets were fired into an artillery base of the U.S. Americal Division four miles southeast of Dai Loc. The U.S. Command said some Americans were wounded, but none were killed.

South Korean marines operating 10 miles southeast of Dai Loc said they rounded up 68 persons suspected of being Viet Cong. A communique said the suspects were hiding in a cave, and enemy booby traps killed four Korean marines.

Cambodia's New Premier in Trouble

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP) — Cheng Heng, Cambodia's chief of state, announced a new government organization plan today making ailing Premier Lon Nol the president or "moral authority."

The chief of state acted after Brig. Gen. In Tam, president of the National Assembly declined to take over the premiership and form a new government.

In Tam said Sunday night he had been unable to see the ailing outgoing premier, Marshal Lon Nol, and could not say whether he would accept the premiership before seeking the marshal's support. But observers believe the obstacle may be Lt. Col. Lon Non, Lon Nol's younger brother. They think he may be withholding support to bargain for a top job in the new government.

Lon Non, head of Cambodia's Central Intelligence Agency, was one of several leading politicians the general consulted Sunday.

On Saturday, Steinborn and Fayad said questioning about the actual bombing of the Capitol lasted only about one hour. They had earlier said questions before that time had no relevance to the March 1 bombing.

Man Held in Slaying of Lawyer

RUSSELLVILLE, Ark. (AP) —Prosecutor Alex G. Streett filed a charge of first-degree murder today in connection with the shooting death Saturday evening of Charles Gardner, 54, of Russellville.

Charged was Oliver Simpson, 58, of Russellville. Authorities said Simpson was arrested in Conway.

A native of Russellville, Gardner was a graduate of Russellville High School and the University of Arkansas Law School. He was a member of the Pope-Yell County Bar Association, the Arkansas Bar Association and the American Bar Association.

Gardner was secretary of the Arkansas Valley Loan Association and was on the Regional Advisory Council for the Small Business Administration.

He was an Army major during World War II. He was a member of the Central Presbyterian Church at Russellville and a Mason.

Brock Case Sent Back for Retrial

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Supreme Court ordered today that John Weber be given a new trial in the 1969 shooting death of Claude Brock. Weber had been convicted of second-degree murder and sentenced to 21 years in prison.

Brock had been shot in the back with a high-powered rifle on Dec. 15, 1969 at Concord (Clebourn County).

The Supreme Court, in an opinion by Associate Justice Lyle Brown, held that Circuit Judge Joe Villines erred by ruling that Eva Jane Carter, also known as Eva Jane Weber, was not the wife of the defendant.

The ruling by Villines permitted the state to call the woman as a witness against Weber, and her testimony was crucial in the case.

She testified that she and Weber drove to the Brock home on the night of Dec. 15, that the two men talked while standing outside their cars, that she heard a gun fire and that Weber returned to the car, exclaiming, "My God, Jane, I have got to get out of here."

When the state gave notice that it intended to call her as a witness, Weber's lawyer moved to exclude her testimony on grounds that she was the defendant's wife. At a hearing on the motion, the woman testified to a common-law marriage in Texas that met the requirements in that state. She also said a marriage ceremony had been performed in Mexico although no marriage certificate was received.

likely that the secretary of state would get a look at the lands west of the Jordan River which Israel seized from Jordan in the 1967 war.

It was the first such side trip of Rogers' peace-seeking, tour of the Middle East, and the weather was ideal for it, with the temperature in the balmy 80s and the sky cloudless.

King Hussein did not accompany Rogers on the flight, although the monarch is a skilled pilot.

After a 22 hour stopover in the Jordanian capital, Rogers was flying late this afternoon to Beirut. There seemed to be a greater risk of anti-American demonstrations there than at any other stop on his trip to four Arab states and Israel.

districts while about 45 per cent go to predominantly Mexican-American.

In 1912 Theodore Roosevelt said "I feel as fit as a bull moose."

When the Hope Rotary Club had its weekly luncheon at the Town and Country on Friday, April 30, Dorsey McRae introduced Paul Chontes of the Arkansas Game and Fish Commission, who presented the program.

He explained the proposed draw-down of Millwood Lake which will take place after Labor Day to alleviate three problems: excessive moss found in shallow lakes; too many bream that are too small; large reproduction of "rough" fish. Millwood is an excellent fishing location now, and the draw-down will assure the continuation of good fishing in the future.

In addition to the speaker, other members of the Game and Fish Commission who were introduced at the meeting were left to right: James Cummings, John Sunderland, Gary Don Formby, Paul Chontes, and Ben Waller.

President C. R. "Dick" Moore welcomed the large group that included one visiting Rotarian, Mason Andres of Texarkana, and guests, Gene Allen, Vic Campbell, Jerry Johnson, and Bob Webb.</

Louisiana Fraud Case Resuming

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The four-week-old trial of Atty. Gen. Jack Gremillion and two other men in the Louisiana Loan & Thrift Corp. case resumes today in federal district court amid prospects of continuing for three more weeks.

U.S. Dist. Court Judge Alvin Rubin, in predicting the length of the trial, said he expected the jury to require two or three days for deliberation.

State Rep. Salvador Anzelmo of New Orleans and Arkansas businessman Ernest Bartlett Jr. are on trial with Gremillion on fraud and conspiracy charges.

Highlight of the fourth week was a tape recording made by A. Pratt Farnsworth, an LL&T director, of the Aug. 1, 1967, meeting of the board of directors. The recording, played for the jury for about two hours on Thursday and two hours more on Friday, quoted Gremillion as having said that LL&T was brought under jurisdiction of the state banking commissioner through a "loophole."

The government contends that an opinion by Gremillion declaring the firm to be similar to a bank allowed it to come under the jurisdiction of the state Banking Department.

At another point, Gremillion told Charles Ritchey, then general manager of the firm, regarding plans for LL&T to open branch offices: "I can't take into consideration breaking the law. I don't care what you did."

Richey was also named as a conspirator and has pleaded no contest. Named as coconspirators but not charged, were the late A. Clayton James, state banking commissioner, and Wil-

On Thursday, April 29, Cub Scout Pack 92 held its last official pack meeting of the school year. Since the theme was Conservation, Scott Patton read the Outdoor Code with Den Chief Paul Patton explaining to the boys how they could live up to each part of the Code.

The program was recitations by each boy in the Pack telling about some form of conservation and what they could do to help, followed by a film.

The meeting began to take on the aura of being Patton night as they walked away with nearly all the awards. Scott Patton presented his records to Webelos Leader Richard VanHorn for acceptance after receiving his Bear badge with a gold and silver arrow. Den Chiefs Paul and Larry Patton were presented with a plaque for their work in the Pack with Mrs. Patton receiving a parting gift since this marked an end of her work as a Den Mother.

Gifts also went to Mrs. John Holt who was serving as Mrs. Patton's assistant and to Mrs. Howard Allen who serves as assistant to Den Mother Mrs. Richard VanHorn. Mrs. Patton received a key chain with the Caddo Council emblem for her work as ticket chairman for the Pack during Scout-O-rama ticket sales with a lanyard going to Cubmaster Don Coffield. Tie slides went to Robert Holt (top salesman, Mark Moore, Alvin Hodges and Joe VanHorn for their efforts during the ticket sales.

A Bear Badge will be presented to Mark Moore soon as he was unable to be present last night. The boys are looking forward to a big community project coming up May 15 at 1:00 p.m. at Fair Park where teamed with boys from Boy Scout Troop 92 and Explorer Post 92 they will spend some time improving the appearance of the park, followed by a Weiner roast supplied by the parents and a baseball game in which the boys are challenging their dads.

The meeting was brought to a close by Den Chief Larry Patton who did Red Skelton's recitation of the Pledge of Allegiance followed by the entire group saluting the flag, by repeating the Pledge of Allegiance. The boys are reminded that the weekly den meetings will continue until further notice with plans being made for swim parties for the Cub Scout family this summer.

CONCLUSION-JUMPER NOT APPRECIATED

Dear Helen: I have a six-month-old German shepherd show dog and I sometimes train him in a nearby park.

Teaching him to heel requires a choker collar. I'll admit jerking back on this collar may look cruel to the uninitiated, but it doesn't hurt my much-loved dog.

Well, this woman and her friend watched me for a while, then hustled up and started yelling that I was inhuman and should have the ASPCA down on me. When I tried to explain it was a training session, done according to rules, she shouted, "You don't deserve that beautiful animal. People like you should have chains around their necks to see how it feels." On like that.

I was so embarrassed in front of all those people in the park that I wanted to dissolve. She followed me half a block, haranguing. When I got home, I cried for an hour.

Helen, that "mistreated dog" sleeps on my bed, is crazy about our children and never leaves my side. I was protecting him from harm when I gave him obedience training.

What burned me was that the woman wouldn't give me a chance to explain. How can people be so righteously rude?—DOG TRAINER

Dear D.T.:

For some, it's easy! Just ask Lyndon Johnson, whose "ear-lift" made history.—H.

Dear Helen: I'm a chicken-freak. I cook it every which way. Love it. Also, it's about the cheapest meat around.

But my husband insists I'm taking big chances. He heard that eating too much caponized chicken makes men impotent.

Could this be?—S.J.M. P.S. I've yet to notice a change.

Dear S.: Not true. P.S. Look, Husband of S.J.M., if you're fed up with chicken, say, so, but don't spread rumors that might "fowl up" the industry.—H.

Dear Helen: Whenever we're invited to dinner with friends, I bring a little gift—wine, candy, a book.

Twice now, these people have come to our house for dinner and each time the woman exclaims, "I had a bottle of champagne for you, but my husband forgot to put it in the car!" ... (while hubby looks somewhat startled). The other night all four of us were invited to another friend's home. Sure enough, out came the "champagne dodge." I'd say this gal is "forgetful on purpose," yes?—COURTESY GIFTLESS

Dear C.G.:

We-e-ell, she's getting lots of mileage from one bottle. Next time you're invited to HER house, omit your gift (no excuses), and hope you'll get at least a glass of the bubbly.—H.

Red Sox Leave Fights 19 on Base, Win Twin Bill

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

There's no place like home for the Boston Red Sox—especially when it's so hard to find.

The Red Sox left 19 runners on the bases—one short of the all-time record for a nine-inning game set by the 1956 New York Yankees—as they scratched out a 9-8 victory over Minnesota Sunday to complete a doubleheader sweep and a lucrative homestand that has put them atop the American League East.

Ray Culp stymied the Twins 1-0 with a two-hitter in the opener but the Red Sox had to come from behind twice in the nightcap for their ninth victory in the 12-game stand at friendly Fenway Park.

They left the bases jammed in four innings before George Thomas' first hit of the season—a bases-loaded pinch single—capped a winning two-run rally in the ninth.

The sweep gave Boston a one-game division lead over the Baltimore Orioles, who salvaged the finale of a three-game set against their former Kansas City cousins by taming the Royals 5-3.

In other American League action, Oakland split a doubleheader with Cleveland, bowing 7-3 in 10 innings after an 8-5 first game victory, the New York Yankees swept a pair from Milwaukee 2-1 and 5-4, the Chicago White Sox beat Washington 3-1 and California subdued Detroit 4-3.

In the National League, San Francisco nipped Cincinnati 4-3 in 13 innings, Pittsburgh downed San Diego 5-1, St. Louis shaded Montreal 1-0, Atlanta topped Los Angeles 4-1, the Chicago Cubs thumped Philadelphia 7-1 and the New York Mets edged Houston 6-5 in 10 innings.

Culp, who had been shelved in his previous three starts, limited Minnesota to a pair of scattered doubles as the Red Sox took the first game with an unearned run off Bert Blyleven in the third inning.

Luis Aparicio, who had doubled, scored from second when second baseman Steve Braun booted Carl Yastrzemski's two-out grounder, giving Culp his third victory against one loss.

In the nightcap, Boston spotted the Tins a 7-2 lead before Reggie Smith's fourth hit—a three-run homer in the seventh—heyed a tying comeback. The Twins regained the lead in the top of the ninth when Harmon Killebrew drilled a run-scoring single for his fourth hit.

But a walk and George Scott's triple knotted it again in the bottom half. Minnesota reliever Ron Perranoski then filled the bases on two walks and Thomas, hitless in six previous at-bats this season, delivered the winning hit.

The Orioles, beaten by Kansas City Friday night and Saturday after whipping the Royals 23 consecutive times over the past two seasons, captured the getaway game behind southpaw Mike Cuellar, who helped his own cause with a two-run homer.

Cleveland's Sam McDowell, shelled from the mound in the first inning of the opener at Oakland, came back to win the nightcap in a rare relief appearance as the Indians broke loose for four runs in the 10th.

Chuck Hinton doubled home the go-ahead run and Ted Ford slugged a three-run homer.

Reggie Jackson's three-run homer keyed a five-run Oakland burst that knocked out McDowell in the first game, pinning the Cleveland fireballer with his fourth loss of the season.

McDowell came out of the bullpen—for the first time since 1969—in the seventh inning of the nightcap, gave up a tying homer by Don Mincher in the eighth and then checked the A's the rest of the way for his initial 1971 victory.

New York's Mel Stottlemyre throttled the Brewers on three hits in their twin bill opener and the Yanks snapped a 44

McGovey Bad Off, But Giants Win

By HERSCHEL NISSENSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

"I feel worse today than I've felt all year," moaned slugger Willie McGovey of the San Francisco Giants. "My right knee was really acting up. This is the worst kind of weather for a guy with my problem."

"When a home run hitter hits one you can't say much," complained pitcher Ron Reed of the Atlanta Braves, "but when one of those slap hitters hits one it hurts the ego."

Sore losers? Hardly.

McGovey whacked a two-run homer in the first inning and a tie-breaking solo shot in the 13th as the Giants edged the Reds 4-3 in chilly, blustery Cincinnati. Reed checked Los Angeles 4-1 on a five-hitter, the only run coming on Maury Wills' 18th career homer.

Elsewhere in the National League, the New York Mets tripped Houston 6-5 in 10 innings, St. Louis nipped Montreal 1-0, Pittsburgh downed San Diego 5-1 and the Chicago Cubs trounced Philadelphia 7-1.

American League scores: Boston swept Minnesota 1-0 and 9-8, Baltimore defeated Kansas City 5-3, California shaded Detroit 4-3, the New York Yankees took a doubleheader from Milwaukee 2-1 and 5-4, the Chicago White Sox beat Washington 3-1 and Oakland divided a twin bill with Cleveland, winning 8-5 and then losing 7-3 in 10 innings.

McGovey dragged his ailing knees to the plate in the 13th inning against Tony Cloninger and did something about getting to the nice warm clubhouse as soon as possible.

"Sure I was thinking of a home run," he said. "I certainly wasn't thinking of bunting. I knew it was gone when I hit it."

The victory was the 16th in the last 20 games for the Giants and gave them a six-game lead in the NL West over Atlanta, which jumped over Los Angeles and Houston into second place.

The Braves got home runs from Orlando Cepeda and Hank Aaron to support Reed's strong pitching. Cepeda connected in the first after Aaron belted his 543rd career double, putting him eighth on the all-time list. Aaron then slugged his 603rd career homer in the eighth.

Reed lost his shutout on Wills' sixth-inning homer, which left the veteran shortstop only 585 behind Aaron. "I had only two hanging sliders all day and look what happened to them. Duke Sims hits a double and Wills gets the home run."

Cepeda's home run came on a change-up from loser Don Sutton. "I was looking for a fast ball," Cepeda said. "I don't get many change-ups, maybe three or four a year. In fact, my first hit in the major leagues was a home run on a change-up."

The Mets blew a three-run lead in the ninth inning against Houston but won it in the 10th on Ken Boswell's double and Bob Aspromonte's triple off George Culver. The Astros had tied it on Cesar Cedeño's two-run homer and Jim Wynn's run-scoring single.

In winning their sixth in the last seven starts, the Mets wiped out a 2-0 deficit with four runs in the sixth against Don Wilson. Tommie Agee doubled, Bud Harrelson tripled and Cleon Jones, Ed Kranepool and deadlock in the seventh inning of the second game on Danny Cater's run-scoring double.

Rick Reichardt's two-run homer in the ninth lifted the White Sox past Washington for a sweep of their four-game weekend set. Reichardt beat his former mates with a two-out wallop off Darold Knowles.

Sandy Alomar decided the Angels-Tigers duel with a tie-breaking single in the seventh—his fourth game-winning hit for California this year.

Canonero of Venezuela Wins Derby

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The Pimlico general manager thought he was being kidded when a telephone caller said he wanted to make a Preakness nomination for a horse racing in Venezuela. It was not a joke and neither is the horse—Canonero II, winner of the Kentucky Derby.

"I thought I was being kidded; I never heard of the horse," Chick Lang said last Saturday night, an hour after Canonero II made himself known to the world.

In changing his status from an unknown member of the Derby mutual field to a star attraction for the Preakness, Canonero II soundly whipped 19 other 3-year-olds.

But the Kentucky-bred, Venezuelan-raced colt, owned by Edgar Calibett of Caracas, won't lack competition in the May 15 Preakness.

"I expect 14," Lang said. One of those expected to test Canonero II is Frank J. Caldwell's Jim French, the Derby runnerup.

Trainer John Campo said Jim French came out of the Derby with cuts on three legs but that the son of Graustark would be ready for the second race of the Triple Crown series in Baltimore.

However, it appeared today that another Campo-trained 3-year-old will miss the $150,000-added Preakness as he did the Derby—Neil Hellman's Good Behavior, the winner of three straight stakes including the Wood Memorial.

Hellman said by telephone Sunday from Albany, N.Y., that he would speak to Campo about putting Good Behavior in the Preakness but added:

"I think we're going to keep our schedule and run in the Withers at Aqueduct Saturday. I wouldn't go in the Preakness with 14 starters."

Two other Derby starters pointed for the 1 3/16-mile Preakness are William A. Levin's Bold Reason, the third-place Derby finisher and Calumet Farm's Eastern Fleet, who got home fourth.

Non-Derby starters expected for the Preakness include Peter F. Kissell's Executioner, the Flamingo winner, and Green-tree Stable's Dynastic, second in the Flamingo and third in the Blue Grass Stakes.

A Derby crowd of 123,284—the first ever officially announced by Churchill Downs management—watched Canonero II circle the field under Gustavo Avila and beat Jim French by 3/4 lengths.

There was another surprise elsewhere Saturday. Big Shot II, an Argentine-bred, scored an upset in winning the $108,100 Century Handicap on the turf at Hollywood Park. Ridden by Rudy Rosales, Big Shot finished a head in front of The Field and paid $18.

Aspromonte produced RBI singles.

Steve Carlton ran his record to 6-1 with a nine-hitter as the Cards dropped the amazing Expos to fourth place in the NL East. The only run was unearned, coming on Lou Brock's single, two infield outs and shortstop Bobby Wine's error. Carlton also ended the 16-game hitting streak of Montreal's Rusty Staub, who hit into a big double play in the seventh with two runners aboard.

Gene Clines' tie-breaking single keyed a four-run burst in the seventh that lifted Pittsburgh past San Diego. The Padres have lost seven in a row and 15 of 17.

Gene Alley started the rally with a single and stole second before pitcher Steve Ari bootied Dave Cash's grounder. Clines then singled, scoring Alley, and Cash also raced home when left fielder Larry Stahl's throw sailed past the plate. Richie Hebner tripled Clines across and scored on Willie Stargell's sacrifice fly.

Ron Santo drove in five runs with a home run, double and bases-loaded walk and Bill Hands scattered six hits as the Cubs drubbed the Phillies.

Santo cracked a two-run double in the first, drew his walk in the fifth which was followed by Johnny Callison's two-run single and homered in the seventh behind Billy Williams' double.

Harness Races Begin Tonight at Westbury

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Harness racing's second world driving championship gets under way tonight at Roosevelt Raceway in Westbury, N.Y.

Eight of the world's outstanding drivers, headed by Herve Filion, the defending champion from Canada, and Billy Haughton of the United States, will compete in a series of 10 races at eight tracks, winding up May 15 at Liberty Bell Park in Philadelphia.

The other six drivers who will compete the world title, sponsored by the Harness Tracks of America, are Gordon Rothacker of Australia, Adolf Uebels of Austria, Jean Rene Gougeon of France, Cencio Ossani of Italy, Peter Wolfenden of New Zealand and Karsten Buer of Norway.

First Pick N., with Filion in the sulky, is favored to win tonight's feature pace and give Herve 50 points in the overall point standings that will decide the world title.

The second stop on the tour is scheduled for Wednesday night at Roscroft Raceway in Oxon Hill, Md.

Albatross, expected to dominate the pacing triple crown, made his 1971 debut as a 3-year-old in impressive fashion Saturday night.

Driven by Stanley Dancer, last year's champion 2-year-old pacer, romped home by nearly 11 lengths in 2:01 3/5 in the $25,000 Romeo Hanover Pace at Rockingham Park. He paid $2.80.

Kentucky, the odds-on choice, finished fifth as Windy Way, a $35.20 long shot, won the $102,969 Realization Pace for 4-year-olds at Roosevelt by 1 1/4 lengths over Colonial. Bob Williams reined Windy Way in 2:08 2/5 for the 1 1/16 miles.

Quick Pride, a trotter, opened his 3-year-old campaign by easily winning the Hanover-Hempt Stake at Pocono Downs. Driven by Del Cameron, Quick Pride paid $3.40.

Quick Pride is one of the early favorites for the Hambletonian. He trotted the mile in 2:06 1/5.

Rice Wins Over A. & M. by Half Point

By DENNE H. FREEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (AP) — Rice's half-point victory over Texas A&M in the Southwest Conference track championship Saturday night was fashioned by a muscle cramp, a courageous second-place in the three-mile run and a fifth-place tie in the high jump.

Rice Coach Augie Erfurth may not have to rely on such an unlikely parlay next year. The Owls lose only 17 points off their championship team.

The muscle cramp struck Aggie star Curtis Mills in the leg some 50 yards out of the blocks in the 220-yard dash. Mills limped to the sidelines like a lame thoroughbred and with him went A

Utah and Kentucky Go for Title

By QUANE KENYON
SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — After more than 100 games, the long American Basketball Association season boils down to a best-of-seven championship series, starting tonight, between Utah and Kentucky, neither of which has ever before won the title.

A near-sellout crowd of about 13,000 is expected for the opening clash.

Both teams have had long layoffs since winning divisional titles. The Colonels, who finished second in the regular season to Virginia in the Eastern Division, haven't played since April 24, when they knocked the Squires out in six games in the divisional playoff.

Utah last played five days ago, when it toppled defending ABA champion Indiana in a showdown seventh game at Indianapolis.

All other things being equal, the finals might boil down to a battle between Kentucky's prize rookie Dan Issel and Utah's eight-year veteran, Zelmo Beaty.

Issel was the league's leading scorer at 29.9 points and the 6-9, 240-pound center scored 48 points against Utah earlier this season.

But he will have his hands full with Beaty, an agile 6-9 and 235 pounds and runnerup in the league's Most Valuable Player balloting to Mel Daniels of the Pacers.

Beaty was out with an injured knee when Issel scored his 48 points. When the two met in other games, Issel scored considerably less and Beaty scored 47 points in one game in which the rookie got in early.

Good Week for North, South Golfers

By KEN ALYTA
Associated Press Sports Writer
PINEHURST, N.C. (AP) — There was only one winner, but both finalists in the North and South Amateur Golf Tournament feel they had a good week.

For 19-year-old Wake Forest University freshman Eddie Pearce there was, of course the thrill of playing four under par golf to win the 36-hole championship match 5 and 4 Saturday.

Runnerup Vinny Giles, disappointed at not winning the final match, still considered his over-all week's work a big plus.

"This tournament has done my confidence a world of good," said the red-haired 28-year-old Richmond, Va., investment banker, relaxing in the Pinehurst Country Club after his loss to the teen-ager from Temple Terrace, Fla.

foul trouble.
Reflecting its balanced scoring, Utah has seven players averaging in double figures for the 11 playoff games, headed by Beaty's 19.9 average and Willie Wise's 18.2.

Besides the Issel-Beaty matchup, the game will pit two coaches who are former members of the Boston Celtics dynasty in the National Basketball Association. Frank Ramsey coaches Kentucky and Bill Sharman guides Utah.

Luzing Advances in a Year

By MARSHALL JOHNSON
QUANTICO, Va. (AP) — The past year has meant a lot of difference in the track outlook for Juris Luzins, the former William and Mary star who two seasons ago was one of the nation's premier half-milers.

Exactly a year ago, Luzins was a spectator—he'd just received a commission of a Marine Corps uniform—at the 14th annual Quantico Relays.

But Luzins was back in a track uniform Saturday—for a 1:48.9 in the invitational 880, two-tenths of a second off the record; a 1:48.4 anchor on the Marines' record-breaking 3:19.6 effort in the spring medley relay; and a 49.5 anchor on Quantico's mile relay quartet.

That earned him the award as the meet's top male performer, though he was pushed by veteran Trinidad Olympian Ed Roberts, who anchored three winning relay teams—two records—and was second in the invitational 100.

Luzins still has two years to go in the Marine Corps, but he hopes to make a bid for next year's Olympic team at 800 meters.

His chances, he says, depend on whether the Marines "let me have the time I need to get ready" and on "where I am this time next year."

Roberts led the Philadelphia Pioneers to records in the invitational 440 relay in 40.7 and 880 relay in 1:24.2 with Tom Randolph, Orin Richburg and Bill Hurd ahead of him in each case. Then he ran a 47.7 final leg on the Pioneers' winning invitational mile relay in a non-record 3:12.4.

Kentucky State won the open 440 relay and open mile relay, the latter in 3:12.4 with Steve Jordan running a 45.7 anchor. Villanova took the two-mile and distance medley, Marty Liruori running a 3:01.1 three-quarter leg.

Eight records were set in the 28 events.
Wind nullified a record-equaling 13.3 performance that tied the American mark in the 100-meter hurdles by Mrs. Patty Johnson of the Angels Track Club in the women's Pan American games trials.

Mrs. Johnson was voted the meet's top woman performer in the 10 events to pick the U.S. team for the Pan Am games July 30-Aug. 13 in Cali, Colombia.

Beard Wins New Orleans Top Money

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Golf Writer
NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — "I never really doubted that I was going to win," Frank Beard said after pulling down the $25,000 first prize in the great New Orleans Open Golf Tournament.

"I know that's what Jack Nicklaus said at the Masters," the quiet man with the deadly putter continued. "But it's true. Even when I was five strokes down, I just knew I was going to win."

"It's like that on some courses for some players." "And this course—and New Orleans—have been very, very good to me. This is the one tournament I'll always play. In the last few years I've won twice, finished second once, I think third once and maybe fourth."

"Good things seem to happen to me here. I got married here," he said, then grinned, "That's the one bad thing..." Beard, playing one day after his 32nd birthday, fired a final-round 68 Sunday on the sunny, 7,080-yard, par-72 Lakewood Country Club course to overtake struggling rookie Hubert Green, his playing partner and the third-round leader.

Beard finished at 276 and Green, who had a final 71, was at 277.

Lee Elder and George Johnson tied for third at 278. Elder had a 71 and Johnson a 68. Masters champion Charles Coody followed at 280.

Defending champion Miller Barber was tied at 281 with Dave Hill, John Lotz and Jack Ewing.

Beard, who pushed his season's earnings to almost $60,000 with his 11th career victory, started slowly on the bright, warm day and dropped five strokes back of Green, a 24-year-old first-year man from Birmingham, Ala., when he bogeyed the sixth hole, hitting into the woods and then finding a trap.

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The University of Arkansas has awarded letters to seven basketball players for the 1970-71 season.

Bobby Vint, a senior from North Little Rock, received his third varsity letter.

Second-year awards went to juniors Almer Lee of Fort Smith, Donnie Watts of Harrison and Fred Mooney of Jonesboro.

First-year awards went to juniors Vernon Murphy of Texarkana and Joel Heider of Kansas City and sophomore John Searles of Pine Bluff.

Travs Shade Birmingham by 5 to 4

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — The Arkansas Travelers overtook Birmingham, 5-4 in the 11th inning with a homerun by Bob Wissler.

Wissler tied the score in the 8th inning after he hit a double, bringing two runs.

Tim Plodinec was the winning pitcher.

The Travelers had to come from behind twice to win the ball game.

The win put the Travelers back in second place in the Dixie Association Central Division. The team now has a 9-9 record.

In other Dixie Association action Sunday it was: Columbus 11, Jacksonville 9; Charlotte 10, Savannah 1; Asheville 5, Montgomery 4; Memphis 2-2; Shreveport 1-1; San Antonio 8, Amarillo 5; and Dallas - Fort Worth 7, Albuquerque 6 in 11 innings.

HORSE VIRUS
WASHINGTON, D.C. (AP) — The American Horse Council has warned horsemen and veterinarians to watch for symptoms of a foreign virus of horses that has recently moved closer to the United States.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture says the disease, called Venezuelan equine encephalomyelitis (VEE), has moved north from South America and Central America into Mexico where about 6,000 horses were reported killed by the disease in 1970.

VEE is infectious and often fatal. It hits the central nervous system in equines.

TCU, Baylor, Tech Wind Up Practice

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Texas Christian, along with Baylor and Texas Tech, wound up spring football drills over the weekend and for the Horned Frogs it was a little traumatic.

TCU's heralded quarterback, Steve Judy, completed 24 of 39 passes for 226 yards for the Purples but it was an interception that led to the victorious Whites' touchdown.

The Whites won 9-7 when Doug McKinnon's 32-yard field goal with nine seconds left drifted a foot or so off target to chill a Purple comeback effort.

Kent Marshall, following the interception of a Judy toss in the second quarter, guided the Whites in for the touchdown, sneaking the final yard himself.

In the end it was a 26-yard field goal by Berl Simmons in the third quarter that provided the winning margin.

He got the stroke back, then gained the momentum that won it for him, on the eighth.

At Texas Tech, Joe Barnes and Jimmy Carmichael overshadowed veteran quarterback Charles Napper in leading the Whites to a 39-7 triumph over the Reds.
At Baylor, starting quarterback Si Southall directed the Green team to a 21-9 victory, but he completed only five of 10 passes and left the Bears' passing game somewhat of a question mark.

EX-MET AIDS ROYALS

NEW YORK (AP) — Maybe all Amos Otis needed was to play 67 games with the New York Mets in 1969.

After hitting .178 in that many National League games, Amos apparently found a welcome home in Kansas City. Last year with the American League Royals the 23-year-old outfielder got in 159 games, batted .284 and accounted for 138 runs. He stole 33 bases in 35 attempts.

The Mets traded him and hurler R.D. Johnson to the Royals for third baseman Joe Foy, now with the Washington Senators, after the 1969 season.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer NEW YORK (AP) — It was NBC's turn to make waves Sunday night: a shocker of a documentary about the treatment of children in some detention center reform schools and mental institutions across the nation.

A network team headed by Martin Carr spent seven months investigating juvenile justice, and would up concentrating on three areas—Cook County Jail and Elgin State Mental Hospital in the Chicago area; Indiana Boys School and Girls School, and El Paso, Tex.

The hour was filled with stories, told by boys and girls and their parents of corporal punishment, beatings and long periods spent in solitary confinement.

Narrator Edwin Newman said that an estimated one million children will be arrested this year, encountering a special system of justice, special because the rules apply only to children. It involves crimes like running away from home, truancy, being out too late at night. He stressed repeatedly that most children called juvenile delinquents have broken laws which do not exist for adults. And that many of them are held without trials, hearings or legal representation.

While the NBC team was excluded from some institutions it was investigating, in others Carr was able to interview young inmates who told of being beaten with boards, repeatedly rapped on the arch of the foot and being locked up in barren cages for prolonged periods. An official of a mental hospital defended as a "treatment" tying two 13-year-old boys to their beds for 77 hours and of keeping a girl, who had slapped a matron, tied to her bed for seven consecutive days.

They were admitted freely to the two Indiana reform schools, and the boys school superintendent did not attempt to evade the fact there were abuses—too many boys in for too short periods, he said, and there was the problem of untrained supervisory employees, many of them with no experience with juveniles.

It was a hard-hitting, well-documented hour and put a spotlight on a dark corner of American justice.

The public broadcasting stations launched on Sunday night another six-part dramatic series, a British adaptation of Dostoyevsky's "The Possessed." Like others in the British Broadcasting Corporation's "Masterpiece Theatre" productions, it was beautifully acted by a large cast. The costumes and the sets—the period is Russia over 100 years ago—were equally impressive.

By Oswald & James Jacoby

Oswald: "Some experts never open four-card major suits. Others go out of their way to open them. Most experts are in between these extremes. They don't open four-card majors often, but they will open one when the alternate bid has manifest defects."

Jim: "We follow this practice in our own bidding and in our teaching so that in JACOBY MODERN we occasionally open four-card major suits."

Oswald: "The essence of our teaching is that partner should never be afraid to raise one of our major suit openings with just three trumps. When we open a spade, the odds are at least 20-1 that we hold at least five spades. When we open a heart, the odds are at least 5-1 that we hold at least five hearts."

Jim: "South opens one heart because he is afraid that if he opens one diamond the heart suit will be lost. And it probably would have been. As it is, North raises to two hearts after the spade overcall and eventually takes his partner to the heart game."

Oswald: "Four opposite three isn't the most desirable trump holding but it works out all right today. Assuming that West cashes two spades and shifts to a diamond, South must play one round of clubs before touching trumps. After that, he can draw trumps and score 10 tricks. The 4-2 trump break will not bother him."
